

Safety Products Seattle

Safety Products Seattle

Western Safety Products proudly offers one of the broadest selections of safety products available at affordable prices. We are updating our online store on a continuous basis to accommodate new products and product lines. So please be sure to check back again soon. If you are not able to find what you are looking for, please visit our information sister site www.westernsafety.com where additional items and more detailed product information can be found. Don't forget to check out our daily online specials.

Industrial Vacuums

On April 22, 2010, the Environmental Protection Agency's Lead RRP (40 CFR, Part 745, Subpart E) went into effect. The new rule requires contractors performing renovation.

Atrix 5 Gallon High Capacity Hepa Vacuum

The Atrix ATIHCTV5H is a 5 Gallon high capacity HEPA filtration vacuum system at an affordable price. This Industrial Hepa Vacuum is ideal for large volumes of dry chemicals, asbestos, mold lead paint dust and other hazardous particulates. An optional beater bar is available to meet EPA RRP Lead requirements.

Atrix Omega HEPA Abatement Vacuum

The Atrix Omega Hepa portable vacuum is a powerful, compact, economical tool to for any abatement project. The HEPA vacuum is made from rugged, high-impact Starex flame-retardant ABS polymer. It's self-contained HEPA filter cartridge is easy and safe to clean and replace.

The Omega vacuum is extremely quiet and operates at less than 73 dB. It uses a 120V motor that requires 20% less energy than standard HEPA vacuums. Accessories store conveniently in the lid.

For more information please visit our website

<http://www.westernsafetystore.com>